HOLIDAY PARTY PROVES SUCCESS

Hundreds of People Attend
Party Given for Benefit of Hospital—Hall is Prettily
Decorated for Occasion.

The most successful entertainment ever given by the ladies for the benefit of the hospital was held Tuesday evening at St. Joseph's hall. About 400 were present. The evening was spent in card playing and games of various kinds. The hall was crowded to its capacity and every table was filled.

The hall was beautifully decorated in green and red. Large Christmas trees were used throughout the hall. At each corner was a tree and then in uniform spaces along the walls, each tree being decorated with red and green lights. The trees were festooned from tree to tree with a large garland of lights. The lights were also decorated with red and green ribbons and presented a pretty effect. On the stage a large Christmas tree stretched across its entire length with the inscription, "Christmas Greetings to Our Hospital." The pennant was in red and green with white letters.

The young ladies of the church served a two-course luncheon after the card playing, which was followed by a social hour.

A six-piece orchestra under the direction of Prof. August Horstmann, furnished the music for the entertainment.

Progressive pedro was the chief feature, there being 125 tables at cards. Prizes were awarded as follows: First prize, Charles Seebauer and Miss Bertha Becker; second prize, Joseph Fetters, Mrs. Sadie Kleinrichert; third prize, John Sullivan, Mrs. E. J. Weber; fourth prize, Raymond Holycross, Miss Velma Kuhn; fifth prize, Fred Mulrine, Mrs. William Ducey, South Bend; sixth prize, George Bickel, Mrs. Mary Tremel; seventh prize, Joseph Jacobs, Mrs. A. R. McNeal; and consolation to E. F. Hayes and Miss Geraldine O'Neill.

A number of excellent musical selections were rendered by an orchestra composed of Edward Geyst, August Horstmann, Leo Horstmann, Charles Futterknecht and Henry Schmitt.

A delicious two-course luncheon was served by the committee in charge, which was composed of Mrs. August Ganser and Mrs. Lewis Gerstbauer, assisted by 15 young ladies.

A committee, in charge of the party, was in charge of the successful party. The members of the receiving committee were Mrs. John A. Herzog, Mrs. August Herzog, Mrs. Joseph Ganser, Mrs. A. B. Graham and Mrs. S. Ganser.

FORMER MISHAWAKA RESIDENT IS DEAD

ELKHART, Ind., Dec. 31.—George Christoph, aged nearly 80 years, died of heart trouble at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John E. Cummings, 1319 Harrison st., at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Funeral services will be held at St. Vincent's Catholic church at 9 o'clock Friday morning. The body will be taken to Mishawaka for burial.

Mr. Christoph, who was born in Herxheim, Bavaria, Germany, came to America when 18 years old, living for a year in New York state, then going to Erie, Pa., where he married Miss Mary Anna Armbuster, who died 29 years ago in Mishawaka.

Mr. Christoph went to a farm north of Mishawaka, afterward moving to Mishawaka, where he lived 20 years and then returned to his farm again, and 12 years ago came to this city to reside with his daughter.

Mr. Christoph is survived by two sons, John S. Christoph of Mishawaka and Frank L. Christoph of Sabley, Mich., two daughters, Mrs. John A. Phillips of Mishawaka, and Mrs. Cummings of this city and five grandchildren. One brother, John Christoph, died in September and another, Simon Christoph, died in October. Both lived in Erie.

CITY'S FIRE LOSS IS LIGHT THIS YEAR

That Mishawaka's fire loss during the past year has been exceedingly low is evidenced by Fire Chief Buyse's report as given below, which speaks well for the department and the able chief who has directed the work, the following is the report:

During the year there has been 87 fires, the department used 503 gallons of chemical, and laid 10,150 feet of hose, traveling 153 miles. Very little damage resulted from the fires as only $643.30 was paid on buildings damaged, and $479.00 on contents damaged. The amount of insurance carried on buildings where fires occurred was $42,065, while that of contents was $3,675. No damage or fire loss resulted on buildings where no insurance was carried, and only $25 loss occurred on contents where there was no insurance.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF CITY FOR PAST YEAR

Number of Births Exceed Death
Rate by Large Margin—
Summary of Cases in Justice and City Police Courts.

A brief summary of the affairs of Mishawaka for the year of 1913 is given in the following:

In the city court there were 76 cases, which were heard before in most instances by Mayor J. A. Herzog. In several cases that he was absent from the city attorneys J. Fred Bingham, Charles Bingham and Ralph S. Feig were appointed to act as special judges.

Of these cases, 38 were intoxication, 12 assault and battery, one running gambling house, one malicious trespass, six petty larceny, two wife desertion, one assault and battery with intent to kill, three drawing dangerous weapons, one defrauding board bill, two embezzlement, one vagrancy, one trespass, one rape, two provoke and five violations of city ordinances.

In the justice court of E. H. Beall there were heard: Trespass, one; statutory, one; violation of speed laws, one; grand larceny, two; assault and battery, seven; selling adulterated milk, three; trespass, two; intoxication, two; provocation, one. On the civil docket were accounts, 17; damage, two; note, two; attachment, three. There were heard in the Beall justice court and four insanity inquests.

In the court of Justice Enos Long: Possession of real estate, 21; account, six; contract, five; adultery, one; replevin, one; damages, one; criminal cases, assault and battery, three; provocation, one; failure to return key, one; public indecency, one; trespass, one; hunting without license, two; hunting on Sunday, one; and intoxication, one. Only one wedding was solemnized in this court.

The criminal docket of Justice Hiram Hunt showed but three cases: One for assault and battery, and two for burglary. Civil cases were scarce, there being one for ousting, one for non est, three for account. The business of weddings was good in this court, there being seven weddings during the year.

In the public schools of Mishawaka there was a slight increase in attendance owing to the discontinuance of the Flemish school last year. The attendance for this year and the enrollment was 1,976. At St. Joseph's school the enrollment was about 400. At St. Peter's German Lutheran about 50. There are now 72 teachers in the public schools.

That the city has been very healthful is shown by the report of the secretary of board of health, Dr. C. A. Dreach. There were 294 births, of these 156 were males and 138 females, while the death number was 143. The report:

Anemia, one; accidental, eight; acute indigestion, three; arterio sclerosis, two; atelectasis, one; apoplexy, 13; atrophy of liver, one; appendicitis, two; brucellosis, one; cholera, one; catarrh of stomach, one; cancer, six; cholera infantum, two; diabetes, three; diphtheria, one; enteritis, three; gangrene, one; gastroenteritis, five; heart disease, 13; hemiplegia, one; hemorrhoids, seven; malnutrition, two; marasmus, one; nephritis, nine; pneumonia, nine; peritonitis, two; premature birth, four; senility, five; still birth, six; septicemia, two; suicide, two; tetanus, one; tubercular meningitis, two; typhoid fever, four; tuberculosis, ten; uremia, five.

Contagious diseases: Scarlet fever, 64; diphtheria, ten; typhoid fever, 16; smallpox, two; infantile paralysis, one.

Births, male, 156; female, 138; total births, 294.

FRANK LUMBER CO.
BANQUETS PATRONS
The Frank Lumber and Coal Co. entertained Tuesday evening at a banquet at the Mishawaka hotel. About 35 were present, which included contractors, real estate dealers and citizens.

The banquet table was arranged in the shape of the letter "T," which represented the word "Triumph" for the many achievements the firm has accomplished while in this city.

Jernegan, acted as toastmaster, and after making a short talk called on Judge R. R. Paelet of Three Rivers, Mich., who spoke on "A Lawyer as an Honest Man," which was received with much interest. He also read a poem, "But a Judge," John B. Witwer of River Park, was the next speaker, giving several reasons why all should co-operate and said that good fellowship was the only trait to practice to gain a single end. The other speakers were Frank Shoushick, manager of the hotel, who presented a tree, the table was very prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns.

LEAVE TO ATTEND WEDDING. Mrs. Frank Buckel and her mother, Mrs. Eliza Nelson, left Tuesday evening for West Pullman, Pa., to attend the wedding of Miss Alice Nelson, daughter of Mr. Eliza Nelson, and Lyle Smith of Chicago. The wedding will take place Wednesday evening.

TO MEET THURSDAY. A meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Tamarack M. E. church will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. There will be held in the church. Everybody is cordially invited.
